

Monday through Friday, July 25-29, 2022, 6-8pm at Opera America

- hosted by Jennifer Peterson, director of operamission
- attend as few or as many sessions as you like
- bring 3 paper copies of any Handel arias (English, Italian, or German) you'd like to work on
- they can be new or old arias for you
- advance preparation need not include preparing any ornamentation at all
- know your text, translation, and the basics of your character and the plot
- memorization not necessary
- please do not consult other people's recordings or YouTubes, it won't help!
- M-Th we will practice extemporizing ornaments and cadenzas and learn all the skills needed to pull off any Handel aria you may encounter
- consultation for additional repertoire suggestions included
- Friday we'll sing through arias we've been working on for any guests you'd like to invite
- spread the word – the more singers we have, the more productive it will be sliding scale...

for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday sessions

$30 per session

$20 each if you bring a friend

$15 each if you bring two friends

$10 each if you bring three or more friends for Friday session

free if you're singing

$10 if you're not payment can be check (payable to "operamission"), Venmo (@operamission), or cash additional tax deductible donations can be made by credit card through operamission.org questions?

please contact Jennifer Peterson at 917 520-3163 or operamission@gmail.com